

London Metropolitan University

BA Film & Broadcast, First Year Documentaries
& MA Audio Visual Production short docs &
dramas 2007

CIDA works in partnership with London Metropolitan University. Creative Links will host exclusive screenings of specially commissioned documentary films exploring the changing physical and social landscapes of London's East End in the run up to the 2012 Games.

---

The disappearing Jewish East End (5 mins) – Martin Koddenberg, Nandor Otos & Karen Ancill
Jewish East Enders recall the days when the East End had a thriving Jewish community and reflect on how it has changed and largely disappeared.

---

Rewriting The Kitchen (6 mins) Drama – Anita Egger
The writing process becomes increasingly difficult with such extreme interruptions.

---

The Ambulance Blogger (7 mins) – Joao Paulo Tristao
Ambulance driver by day – blogger by night

---

Cage Fighter (8 mins) – Jesse and Daniel Quinones
Dynamite Dean Bray is a Cage Fighter. In five days he faces his next fight and if he wins his career will soar. If he loses...

---

Louis' Melody (5 mins) – Cinna Aissa, Olivier Assoua, Urte Karaliute & Pedro Santos
The puzzling portrait of a pianist, his music and his daughter.

---

A Better World (6.30 mins) Drama – Jesse and Daniel Quinones
A domestic crisis.

---

There's no place like home (5 mins) – Rob Szmigielski, Thomas Penders, Tom Williams & Umberto Schramm
A young, single mother's struggle to seek asylum in the UK.

---

Hair (4 mins) – Zoe Papadopoulou
Home from home. A day in the life of a local hair salon.

---

Yasmeen & Me (9 mins) – Samar Ata-Ullah
Young mother coming to terms with the loss of identity and isolation that comes with parenthood.

---